R&B, classic rock, country and more at Tulare County Fair

TULARE – The Tulare County Fair’s entertainment lineup this year offers everything from metal-meets-mariachi to country, R&B and classic rock favorites.

All Budweiser Stage concerts are free with paid admission.

Wednesday, Sept. 10: Metalachi. This band is known for sombreros and extended classical violin solos sandwiched between covers of Guns ‘n’ Roses, Led Zeppelin and Metallica.

Thursday, Sept. 11: Morris Day and the Time. This rhythm and blues/funk ensemble is led by Morris Day, whose career began in a band with Prince. Day was also featured in the Prince film “Purple Rain” and he has enjoyed a resurgence of popularity since an appearance with Rihanna during the 50th anniversary Grammy Awards show.

Friday, Sept. 12: Eddie Money. The would-be cop turned classic rocker has recorded over a dozen albums of his own as well as projects in television and film and always draws a crowd at the Tulare County Fair. The show will feature all of his greatest hits.

Saturday, Sept. 13: JT Hodges. Hodges saw success with his first three singles, including “Goodbyes Made You Mine,” and he enjoyed a star turn in the Hallmark Channel’s “Finding Christmas.” He is now working on his second album release featuring the single “Already High.”

The Tulare County Fair will run Sept. 10-14, offering a week of entertainment for the family, educational activities for children, the annual Junior Livestock Auction, Fair food, fun rides and more. Admission is $8 for adults; $5 for children ages 6-12. Seniors 62 and older are admitted for $5 on Senior Day, Friday, Sept. 12. The fair will also offer live local entertainers, the annual Junior Livestock Auction, new food booths, the Destruction Derby, fun rides and more. Visit tcfair.org for ongoing updates to the schedule of events.
