Tulare County Fair accepting applications from local entertainers

TULARE – The Tulare County Fair is seeking local entertainers to perform during the fair, Sept. 10-14.

The application form, and details about available sound equipment, is available online on the entertainment page of the fair’s web site, tcfair.org. Applications are due by Aug. 1.

Acts must be appropriate for fair-goers of all ages, and could include performers ranging from dance troupes and local singers to belly dancers. In addition to submitting the form, prospective entertainers are encouraged to provide samples of performances, letters of recommendation and web site information.

“The Tulare County Fair draws a huge crowd from throughout the South Valley, so it offers entertainers an invaluable venue to perform and make their name known,” noted Pamela Fyock, CEO of the Tulare County Fair.

Entertainers will be able to perform for crowds at the Eagle Mountain Stage and the Community Stage. The Budweiser Stage will be reserved for national headliner performers.

The Tulare County Fair will run Sept. 10-14, offering a week of entertainment for the family, educational activities for children, the annual Junior Livestock Auction, Fair food, fun rides and more. Visit www.tcfair.org for ongoing updates to the schedule of events or call the fairgrounds office at 686-4707.
